

Sumter Little Theatre
WORKSHOP
presents...

TWO ONE-ACT PLAYS BY JASON MILLER

(Author of "That Championship Season.")
Directed by Reid Beebe

CIRCUS LADY

Powerful, yet bitingly-humorous, this drama moves swiftly to capture its telling portrait of a tormented and desperate woman unable any longer to control her own destiny.

The play takes place in a fourth floor tenement in one of the Puerto Rican-Negro ghettos of the East Bronx, New York.

The Cast

John Perez	Bryan Schutz
Marie Perez	Ann Wilson Floyd
Mr. Stein	Larry Stoy
Ruth	Myra Yeatts
Western Union Man	Michael Duffy

Lou Gehrig Did Not Die of Cancer

This imaginative, funny, and revealing play explores the meeting of two "losers," who find a chord of understanding growing subtly but surely between them. The play is set in the suburban living room of Barbara and Victor Spinilli.

The Cast

Barbara Spinilli	Sha Steele
Helen Martin	Lesa Buglewicz
Victor Spinilli	Gene Broadway

Reid Beebe, Director - Mr. Beebe has been actively involved in the theatre since 1974 and was most recently seen as Franklin Roosevelt in the 1986 production of "Annie." Since then, he has been stage manager and assistant director for several SLT productions and under the guidance of Katie Damron, he is making his directing debut.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS: McDuffie Furniture Company & Danny's Trophy Shop

DON'T FORGET the SLT Workshop children's production of "Wiley and the Hairy Man"

August 13, 14, 20, 26, & 27. Call 775-2150 for ticket information.

AUDITIONS for "You Can't Take It With You" are scheduled for August 15 & 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the SLT Workshop.
Twelve men and seven women will be cast.

PLEASE--No smoking, drinking, or eating in the theatre. No photographs during the performance.